MEDIA ALERT

Alex Perry to tour AEIOU Logan

Australian fashion icon Alex Perry will be touching down in Brisbane this Thursday to catch up with families from AEIOU Foundation's Logan centre.

Mr Perry has been an AEIOU ambassador for more than a decade and looks forward to connecting with the children and hearing from their parents about the wonderful milestones achieved through autism-specific early intervention.

During the visit, he will also surprise one lucky family with an accommodation voucher at Alex Perry Hotel & Apartments Brisbane, which will allow for some very well-deserved down time.

Media are invited to attend the event, however please note, as the above family will be selected by way of a random draw, we are unable to ensure they will be present, or give media consent to be photographed/filmed. However, AEIOU staff will work with media to ensure they secure suitable footage of children engaging with Alex and interview a current family.
